Stay

Stays for work or play
Or to savour a holiday
Brief sojourns or long stays

The spacious clubrooms, with a view to the polo grounds and within the neighing-shot of the horses, have been the players' favourite all along.

The cluster of huts with its Rajasthani rural vibe is a cosy lot themselves.

Besides everything equine, those seeking to retreat from the chaos and cacophony of cities would appreciate this oasis.

Conducive to creative work, writing, sabbatical and the new paradigm of work-cation.

Dine

Freshly cooked & seasonal
In traditional & regional style
Multicuisine by partner chefs

A culinary palette for all palates and for all purposes
is the philosophy here.

Hearty and wholesome after chukkers, light yet nutritious for therapeutic matters and,
sumptuous dining for celebrations.

Stay at the club is inclusive of all meals.

Non-residents can make table reservations for Sunday brunch, three days in advance.

Host

Bespoke events

Intimate or elaborate

Memories stay cherished

The campus is reminiscent of an oasis and its charm.

Horses, polo and the green outdoors make a regal
and sensory canvas,
out of the ordinary,
to host events, big or small.

For group dinners or family get-togethers, pre-wedding shoots or engagements, fashion shows or product launches, workshops or off-sites, concerts or book signing, poetry or polo, JPC is like no other for the well heeled.

Wellness

To be well
is to function optimally
And to be in a flow state

Curated by Wellness Lifestyle, Wellbeing Stays & Clinics are fixed-duration retreats,
organised on request & registration. The setting is naturally conducive.

Outdoor opportunity and inward reflection in the company of horses all go a long way.

The themes range from general wellbeing, health of the mind, equine-enhanced emotional healing, expert interventions for faster recovery from injuries, to improving sporting performance and functional fitness.

Polo+
Riding

True to its founding passion for Polo and horses, JPC fosters budding talents in Polo.

In particular, the players from and around Jaipur, the city with a long and regal connection with Polo.

Riding lessons are available too.

Whether novice or seasoned, JPC is open for players from India and overseas.

Tournaments

Practice & Play

Practise and play at the JPC polo field. Prepare for the popular winter Polo season in North India and participate in the tournaments in Jaipur and other cities.

A person wearing a yellow shirt, blue pants, and a riding helmet is riding a brown horse in a grassy field. The horse has red wraps on its lower legs. In the background, there are green trees and a clear blue sky. A dog is lying on the ground in the lower right corner.

Play practice chukkers
for a green fee.

JPC offers assistance to players to form teams to participate in tournaments.

Polo ponies

Rent & Play

Visiting players at mid-level and above can rent Polo ponies from JPC. Its stables are home to some of the best in the world.

JPC's polo ponies are trained by trainers from Argentina at regular intervals through the year.

Polo Clinics

Learn & Hone

Launched in the 90s these clinics have attracted both fresh and experienced players worldwide. They are all-inclusive programs with stay and meals, with time to explore local culture and cuisine.

Polo clinics are structured and progressive classes.

The daily schedule includes stable activities and chukkars.

Stick and ball,
chukkers, stable tours, horse
management, working,
grooming and feeding the horses are part of the daily schedule.

Evenings are free to explore Jaipur, local cuisine or relax under the stars or around a bonfire.

JPC's patrons

Her Highness (late) Rajmata of Jaipur, Gayatri Devi

was the chief patron of JPC from its very inception

---

Colonel (retd) Kuldeep Singh Garcha

has been the President & Patron
of JPC from the day
it was founded.

Recipient of the Arjuna Award, India's most prestigious award for sportspeople, Col Garcha, with a handicap of five goals, had captained and coached the Indian polo team, and has played in 20 countries.

He commanded the 61st Cavalry, the most elite regiment in the Indian Army and the only active mounted cavalry globally.

"To win, one does not necessarily have to beat someone. The true winner is the one who gains from every match, every game and moulds himself to achieve better all-around standards on and off the Polo field."
